2. Regeneration - Funding and action –

Karen Hillhouse (Dalmuir)

No participants: 15

Karen Hillhouse introduced the funding and action from the Dalmuir site. The following discussion focused on how to get more funds from the public purse and grant-making bodies. A suggestion that too much dependence on others at a time when a change in the economic or political situation may cause difficulty, as happened in the 1960's, proved a minority view and revealed a difference in this and other allotment situations between the new allotment holders and the 'flat cap brigade
